

Week #2 March 3, 2021

Scripture Focus – I have all that I need;

Meditation -

God has not left me alone to face challenges, and the same is true for your life. Think about it today. God has taken responsibility for leading you. For guiding you. For directing you. For feeding you. For satisfying you. What an incredible truth. The Lord is my shepherd I shall not want. Since God is our shepherd, what else could we want? This is the greatest gift possible, that God would be our shepherd knowing that God is all-sufficient. God is all satisfying. God is all God. God is all loving. When he is your shepherd, you lack nothing. Ultimately, you lack nothing.

Kid Connection -

- Find Psalm 23 in your Bible.
- Write a love letter to God. Tell God how He gives you all that you need. Then draw a picture of God as a shepherd.
- Listen to this song often to help you learn the 23rd Psalm! Create your own motions to help you remember God's promises.

Questions to Ponder -

What does it mean that God is our provider?

Spend time on your needs vs. wants.

Do you believe God gives you all that you need?

Song -

Prayer -

Lord, I thank you for always providing for me. I thank you for St. Paul's and the guidance and sustenance for my soul which is strengthened through the church. I ask you to help me realize my blessings, even in challenging times, and to praise you for everything that you have given me. Help me to tell the difference between what I need and what I think I need. All glory and honor belong to you my Lord. Amen.

pray continually
